NEWS

NEW ONLINE PRODUCTION DIRECTORY GOING LIVE SEPTEMBER 1ST! REGISTER NOW!!!

Florida is experiencing a resurgence of production in the state due to the new financial incentive that went into effect July 1st. We hope everyone is regularly checking our website at www.filminflorida.com for information about the various projects that will be coming to your local areas. Visit the "Florida Incentive Recipients" page for more information.

We are thrilled to be able to offer our clients the most talented crews and extensive array of industry vendors and professional support services found throughout the state via our new online Production Directory. The Production Directory, powered by "Reel Crew," is an expansion of our current Reel Scout locations photo system that will create a searchable, electronic database of Florida's skilled workforce and available production resources.

On September 1st, the new Production Directory's search function will go live! Clients all over the world looking to bring their projects to Florida will be able to access the Production Directory and search for crew members and local businesses by category, region, union affiliation, and much more! They will also be able to create a customized directory of crew and support services for the area(s) they are looking to work in. Additionally, clients will have the ability to print their results (with just a click) in a variety of ways – e.g., by name, by category, with all credits listed, with just the most recent credits listed, etc.

REMEMBER: You must be present to win! Clients cannot find you if you're not listed. We strongly encourage you to go register IMMEDIATELY at www.filminflorida.com. Create and update your profile with the most current information on your work history, your professional credits, even upload your resume or brochure (if you're a business). Then, don't forget to continue to update it as you work on new projects. The guide's search feature will be going live on September 1st, so we encourage you to REGISTER NOW!!!

We also encourage you to register with any and all other online reputable directories, including ProductionHub.com, Duddleme.com, and the FilmFlorida.com production guide. You cannot be listed in too many places.

It's a sunny day in Florida!

MIAMI DADE COLLEGE HIRES VETERAN FESTIVAL MANAGER AS DIRECTOR OF ITS MIAMI INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

MIAMI, August 23, 2010 – Miami Dade College (MDC) has hired veteran festival manager, Jaie Laplante, as director of its acclaimed Miami International Film Festival (MIFF). Laplante moved to Miami more than a decade ago after falling in love with the city and the potential he knew it had to reach even greater cultural heights. The experienced cultural event administrator, programmer, and consensus-builder will officially take the reins of MIFF October 15.

Laplante is currently the director of the South Beach Wine & Food Festival where he oversees everything from programming to budgeting. Prior to this important post, he was co-director of the Miami Gay & Lesbian Film Festival. He has also worked as a screenwriter, consultant and project manager.

Obtaining his Bachelor's of Fine Arts with a specialization in film production from York University in Toronto, Laplante describes himself as an innovator. "I like to be at the intersection of artistic and creative impulse, but through a strong business and fiscal approach," said Laplante. "I am very excited about working for the Miami International Film Festival at Miami Dade College to continue building on the successes the festival has achieved through the backing of the institution and its supporters."

For more information on the Miami International Film Festival, visit www.MiamiFilmFestival.com.

ON THE EVE OF THE BICENTENNIAL OF CHILE'S INDEPENDENCE, MIAMI CELEBRATES WITH "CINE! CHILEAN FILM FESTIVAL 2010"

Miami, Florida, August 9th, 2010: The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Chile, the Chilean Consulate General in Miami, ProChile, the Chile-US Chamber of Commerce, Miami Dade College y Andromeda Productions, Inc., present "CINE! Chilean Film Festival 2010" in Miami.

Celebrating the Bicentennial of Chile's independence with the aim of helping the victims of the February 27th earthquake that shook the country, Andromeda Productions, Inc., creates a week dedicated to Chilean cinema, as an official commemorative event.

The films will be screened at the Miami-Dade College Tower Theater, located at 1508 S.W. 8th St., Miami, FL 33135, (www.mdc.edu/culture/tower.html), from September 10th-16th, 2010.

"CINE! Chilean Film Festival 2010" will premiere in the Florida markets four of the most recent creations of the Chilean movie industry, including "El Regalo" ("The Gift"), comedy by Cristián Galaz and Andrea Ugalde, winner of the Italian Trieste Festival Best Movie award; "Teresa", biographical drama directed by Tatiana Gaviola; "A Un Metro de Ti" ("A Stop Away from You"), romantic comedy, a chilean-spanish production directed by Daniel Henríquez; and "Ojos Rojos" ("Red Eyes"), documentary on the Chilean soccer team, by Juan Ignacio Sabatini, Juan Pablo Sallato, and Ismael Larraín.

The Festival is produced by Andromeda Productions, Inc. and coordinated by its president, Emilia Anguita Huerta, a Miami-based Chilean filmmaker, film and television director, author of award-winning short films, most importantly "Red Bird", produced in Miami in 2005. Andromeda Productions, Inc., is an independent production company based in Florida, dedicated to creating corporate messages and films for television.

This September, "CINE! Chilean Film Festival 2010" speaks to the latino heart in the Miami community. Join us in supporting our talent and contribute to our efforts to help the victims of the Chilean earthquake!

Buy your tickets at the Tower Theater box office one hour before each film. General Admittance: $6.00. Seniors and Students: $5.00.

For more information, please visit the festival's website www.cine-festival.com.

MOVIE PRODUCER WILLIAM PACKER REACHES FOR BOX OFFICE GOLD

Tampabay.com © Aug 25, 2010

When Takers opens this weekend, some moviegoers in St. Petersburg will be heading to Muvico at BayWalk to support a successful filmmaker with local ties. William Packer, 37, a 1991 graduate of St. Petersburg High School, could have a third No. 1 box office hit under his belt by week's end. So how did the former Mr. St. Pete High, who holds a bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering from Florida A&M University, become a movie producer?

JACKSONVILLE JOURNAL: 'AX HANDLE' FILM WILL BE SHOWN THIS WEEKEND

Florida Times-Union © Aug 25, 2010

The documentary "Ax Handle Saturday: 50 Years Later" will screen starting this weekend on WJCT. The 30-minute film contains witness interviews from people who played a part in the lunch counter sit-in demonstrations and the violent reaction to them that occurred on Aug. 27, 1960. The film was funded by the Jacksonville Historical Society and the Florida Humanities Council.

NORTH TEXAS GETS EARLY LOOK AT HOME-GROWN TV SERIES 'LONE STAR'

Dallas Morning News © Aug 23, 2010

Lone Star, with its oil business setting, has drawn comparisons to the TV classic Dallas, which shot sparingly in North Texas. But as Fox4 news anchor Clarice Tinsley reminded the audience Saturday, Lone Star is "set in Houston and Midland, but it's shot right here in Dallas-Fort Worth."

THE CALIFORNIA FILM COMMISSION'S INCENTIVE PROGRAM

Los Angeles Times © Aug 23, 2010

It took just one day for the California Film Commission to allocate all $100 million in subsidies the Legislature provided to lure film and TV crews to the state this year. The commission granted tax credits to 30 productions; at least 30 more landed on a waiting list, where they're not likely to stay.

HOW THE LOSS OF MICHIGAN TAX CREDITS FOR MOVIES AND TV SHOWS WOULD HURT ME

Associated Content © Aug 23, 2010

As a freelance entertainment writer, I find that I am directly affected by the upcoming governor's race in the state of Michigan. I have come to the realization that the candidate's stances over the tax credits that are given for movies and TV shows that are shot in Michigan. Even though the election is over three months away, I have found that I have been experiencing a lot of sleepless nights.

PHOENIX'S FILM INDUSTRY SUFFERING FROM RECESSION

AZ Central.com © Aug 24, 2010

Phoenix's traditionally robust film industry took a dive this year, with moviemakers and commercial producers spending $9.5 million less in fiscal year 2009-10 than the year before. The decrease has the city's film office looking for ways to boost marketing efforts and maintain the industry as an economic engine.

NEBRASKA FILM: HEATH MELLO ADVOCATES FOR FILM TAX INCENTIVES

Silicon Prairie News (blog) © Aug 25, 2010

As the Silicon Prairie region continues to build a reputation for being an entrepreneur and innovation hotspot, Nebraska is looking to become a Hollywood of sorts for its blossoming actors, directors and other "filmsters" awaiting stardom. But there is one thing holding Nebraska's film industry back that has benefited California's well-endowed film production

GOING BIONIC: DISTRIBUTING INDEPENDENT FILMS INTERNATIONALLY – TAX CREDITS ROCK!
FilmThreat.com © Aug 24, 2010

That's the thing with mother loads; they'll make you ecstatic for a short period of time and then they'll disappear for at least for one year, possibly forever. The same is the case with Film Tax Credits. While they serve as "mother loads" for the filmmakers lucky enough to grab a piece of them, there's clearly not enough "candy" to go around.

STATEWIDE EVENTS:

SCREENWRITERS OF TOMORROW GROUP MEETING

There's plenty of talk about why Screenwriters of Tomorrow is the premier screenwriters group in the Tampa Bay area; but with its focus on educating the screenwriter on all the latest changes in Hollywood's writing industry, there is no wonder why seven of its members were asked for their scripts at Sunscreen Film Festival's Pitchfest. Come and see what all the buzz is about!

FALL 2010 AUDITIONS FOR FSU FILM SCHOOL GRADUATE AND UNDERGRADUATE FILMS

The FSU Film School will hold open casting calls for Graduate and Undergraduate Films on Sunday, September 19, 2010 and Sunday, September 26, 2010. Both days are from 10:00AM - 7:00PM. No appointment is needed. No experience is necessary. All ages are welcome.

What to expect at the audition:

When you come in, we will take a headshot and get some basic info from you (name, contact info, experience, interests, etc.). You may also bring a headshot and/or resume, but it is not necessary. Then you can choose from a selection of script sides we have available (~2 pages) or you can come with a prepared monolog (1 minute or less). We will bring you into a room where we will then video record you performing the monolog or side you selected (you don't need to have the side memorized). Depending on how many people show up, the whole process can take anywhere from a half hour to about 2 hours.

When the students are ready to start casting for their films, they will refer to the database and audition DVDs to find someone who fits their casting needs. If there is a match, the student will call you back in to read for a specific part. That's it!

The FSU Film School is located in the University Center, Building A (on the north side of the Doak Campbell Stadium), off Pensacola Street at Champions Way, Tallahassee, FL.
